

Finding Articles in OhioLINK

Using OhioLINK Databases:

Databases are licensed and paid for under contractual agreements. Due to contract restrictions the general public is not allowed remote access to databases. Any state of Ohio employee with a current library card from the State Library of Ohio can access OhioLINK databases.

Getting to the OhioLINK resources:

From the State Library homepage, library.ohio.gov, click "Access OhioLINK Resources" under "I'd like to..."

There are two ways to access OhioLINK databases: from within the State Library and many other state agency buildings that can directly authenticate users or from any other location which will require the use of a State Library of Ohio library card.

- Access OhioLINK databases from a State Library of Ohio location
- Access OhioLINK databases from any other location

If accessing resources remotely, select "State Library of Ohio" as your institution.

Input your last name in the name field and the last nine (9) digits of your library card number as your Patron ID#
